Indoor Music Games – COVID-19 update

With continued uncertainty on the spread of the Coronavirus throughout the world currently, together with linking very closely with all necessary authorities and event locations the board have taken the decision to postpone IMG Bristol, scheduled to be held on Sunday 22nd March 2020 and IMG Surrey, scheduled to be held on Saturday 4th April 2020.

This decision has not been taken lightly but as everyone is aware, these shows fall in the middle of a containment program nationally and so we will look to a new date(s) in May or June where we will hopefully see a full weekend opportunity where those postponed shows can be reinstated upon or 2020 schedule; possibly coming together into a single event. This, of course will depend on circumstances as dictated to by the authorities and venues at that time. Dates for the replacement program are being confirmed right now and as soon as we have more information on that this will be communicated.

Our prime focus is in keeping everyone safe from harm and in these uncertain times we have an unprecedented extended duty of care to everyone involved in both hosting, organising, participating in and enjoying all the very many wonderful musical presentations that take place at IMG events across the UK.

As the situation changes we will update everyone at that time. For now though, the new start of the Indoor Music Games will be at our South Yorkshire show in Sheffield on Saturday 18th April 2020.
